Dear Oliver,

A note about Mum's house and Dad's flat, because I want you to have it in writing.

I do not follow houses. I follow children. I know where you are sleeping tonight because that is the one thing I keep track of, and I have both of your homes on the route, every year, in ink.

Two Christmases is not a problem to be solved. It is two Christmases. Enjoy both of them.

With love,

Santa
